The 2018 Texas Baptist Family Gathering is a time of bringing together joint sessions of Texas Baptist Annual Meeting, the African American Fellowship Conference and the Hispanic Baptist Convention of Texas in harmonious celebration.

Our church is able to send 15 messengers to this annual meeting. Nominations are being received today and next Sunday, July 15. We will vote on the election of the messengers on Sunday, July 22. Nominations are being taken through our Life Groups.

Additionally, we have been asked to provide some volunteer greeters to the Family Gathering. Information about serving as a greeter and description of responsibilities is available at Information Central.

Call To Worship

The Scriptural call to worship at the beginning of our service is a reminder that, as we gather, it is God who initiates and reveals Himself to us through His Word, and we respond to Him.

28 Therefore let us be grateful for receiving a kingdom that cannot be shaken, and thus let us offer to God acceptable worship, with reverence and awe, 29 for our God is a consuming fire.

Hebrews 12:28-29

Time of Prayer

Prayer is one of the central acts of worship. During this time we communicate with God through which we express our trust in and complete dependence on Him.

Offering

Giving is an act of worship in which we give generously of our resources to further the mission of the church and to bring glory to God.

3 Easy Ways to Give to Shady Oaks

1. Place your tithe/offering in the offering plate.
2. Mail your tithe/offering to
Shady Oaks Baptist Church

3. Automate your tithe/offering at www.shadyoaks.org/give

The New City Catechism

The New City Catechism is a modern-day resource aimed at helping children and adults learn the core doctrines of the Christian faith using 52 questions and answers.

Part 2: Christ, Redemption, Grace

QUESTION 28

What happens after death to those not united to Christ by faith?

At the day of judgment they will receive the fearful but just sentence of condemnation pronounced against them. They will be cast out from the favorable presence of God, into hell, to be justly and grievously punished, forever.

For God so loved the world, that he gave his only Son, that whoever believes in him should not perish but have eternal life. For God did not send his Son into the world to condemn the world, but in order that the world might be saved through him. Whoever believes in him is not condemned, but whoever does not believe is condemned already, because he has not believed in the name of the only Son of God. . . . Whoever believes in the Son has eternal life; whoever does not obey the Son shall not see life, but the wrath of God remains on him.

John 3:16-18, 36

PRAYER

Judge of All the Earth, we tremble to think of the judgment that awaits all outside your covenant. Before it is too late, may those we love be reconciled to you so that they do not suffer the punishment that is theirs, and would have been ours, apart from you. Amen.

Summer Challenge

During the summer months, it is easy to get off track with your daily walk with the Lord because of vacations, summer activities, and busyness. So, this summer, to help us stay on track, we want to challenge our church to do three things:

1. Pray For One Lost Person Daily

- Pray that they will somehow hear the gospel each day.
- Pray that God will awaken their hearts to their need for Him.
- Pray that God will give you the words to say when you share the gospel with them.
- Pray that God will grant that they will have ears to hear, faith to believe, and the desire to respond to the gospel.

2. Pursue One Lost Person

- Begin/continue a relationship with one person that does not have a relationship with Jesus Christ. Remember, sometime people can be led to Jesus the first time you see and visit with them. However, most people are brought to Jesus by a friend or relative. Work at making friends with lost people.

3. Present The Gospel

- Sharing the Gospel is where the power comes from. Make sure your presentation is clear, concise, and compelling.
- Use what God has done in your life as a real example for them to see and understand.
- Utilize whatever way that you are comfortable in sharing your faith.
